A BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

Ford and Delana Durfee Dudley, born in Lenox County, New York, February 4, 1821. They all came to Utah in 1854. William Ford died in Provo in 1860. Joseph married Eliza Lovisa Smith on September 11, 1876. Eliza was born February 23, 1859, at Provo, daughter of Philip Smith and Eliza Ann Frampton. She died May 10, 1887, at Heber and was buried in Wallburg. Joseph's mother came to Wallburg with him. She died January 26, 1896, and is buried in Wallburg, along with his father and daughter, Delana Ann. Joseph died February 25, 1908.

Joseph Lewis and a sister were born when his parents were on the pioneer trail. His wife, Eliza, died when his son Philip was two years old. Joseph's mother, an invalid, cared for him. Joseph was breadwinner and father and mother to his four children and mother. He was a successful farmer and raised cattle and hogs. He was a good Latter-day Saint, too.

Joseph's and Eliza's children were: Delana Ann, Eliza Jane, Sarah Melissa, William and Philip Lewis. 938
